WELCOME TO Wollondilly

Covering 2,560 square kilometres across the idyllic south western outskirts of Sydney, the Dilly is home to 35 unique towns & villages.

We sit just 90 minutes south of Sydney in the foothills of the Southern Highlands.

These 6 drives give you a hint of the Shire's amazing past and wonderful present. From the original residents, the Gundungurra, Darug and Dharawal tribes, to the pioneering settlers and bushrangers that have shaped today's Shire.

Enjoy the rich tapestry of Mother Nature's mountains, lakes, gorges, flora and fauna. Take in the enduring skill of man, in the form of our 5 amazing catchment dams, a great place to take a break and enjoy a picnic.

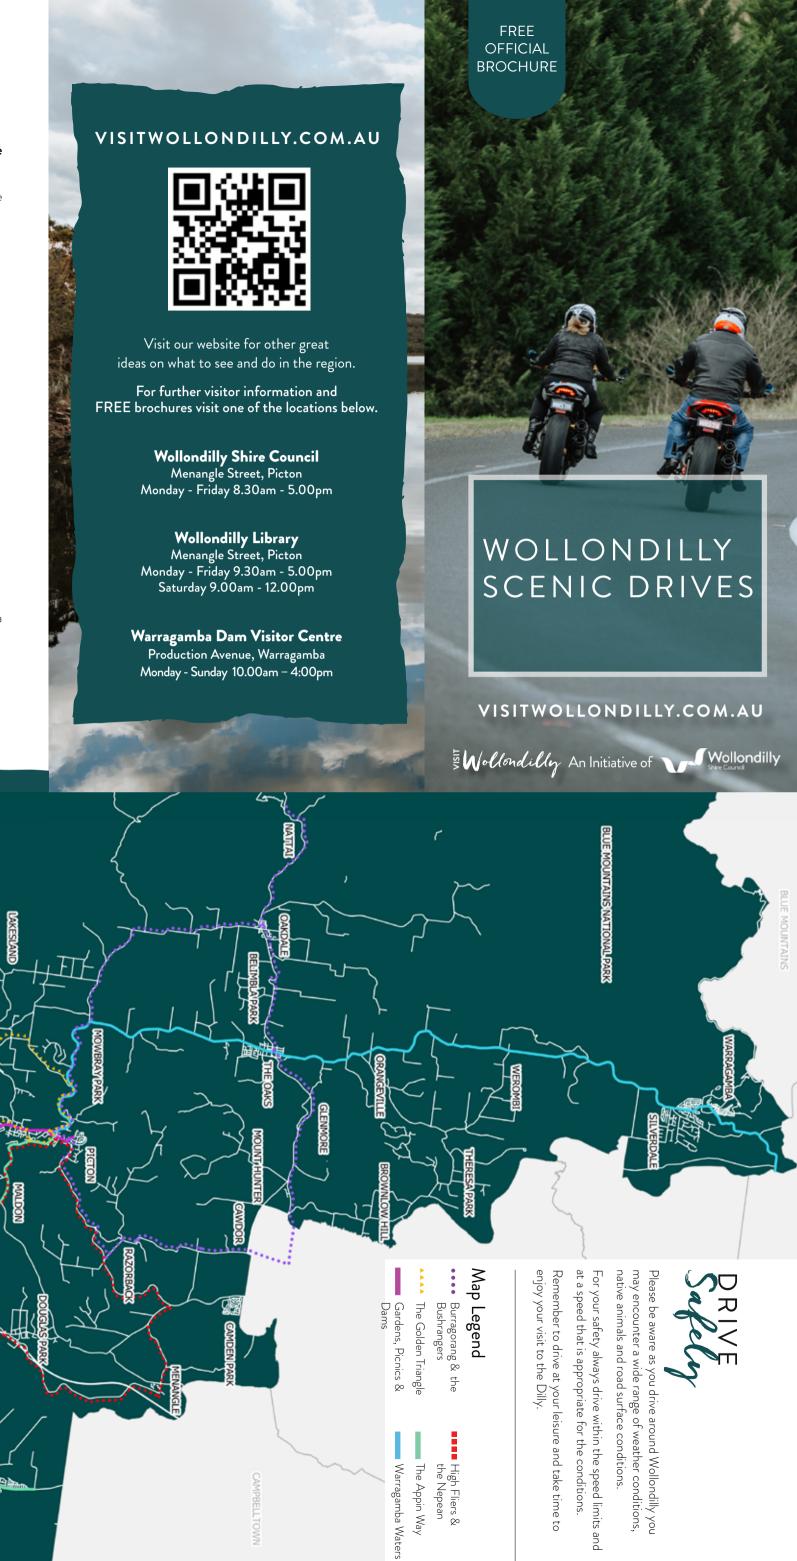

Relive the past at the Wollondilly Heritage Centre & Museum or the NSW Rail Museum; enjoy the present relaxing at one of our many inns, cafes or restaurants. Get back to nature by taking time out to visit the Australian Wildlife Sanctuary, Bargo Dingo Sanctuary or Thirlmere Lakes National Park. Marvel at the skill and courage it takes to jump out of a plane at Sydney Skydivers. And don't forget to hit the track at Picton Karting Track or battle it out at Ultimate Paint Ball!

Along the way, make sure to call into a local cafe or restaurant for a delicious lunch, coffee or baked treat.

All sound like too much to do in just one day? Why not book in for an overnight experience at one of our classic bed and breakfasts, modern motels or unique farm stays. Enjoy fabulous country style hospitality, turn your visit into a getaway and make the most of it!

The driving itineraries commence at Wollondilly Shire Hall on Menangle Street, Picton. All roads are tar sealed with the exception of one small section being dirt in drive 6.

Please note that drive itinerary times do not include recreational breaks.
